ACKNOWLEDGEMENT TO THE FOURTH EDITION

Although the directives in this manual come from many sources, several people provided especially detailed comments and suggestions. The following people deserve thanks for their extensive and insightful criticisms of early drafts of sample directives:

Marcus M. Lipp, Fairfax City Police Department
Nancy Maiden, Virginia State Police
Jane Goodman, Chesterfield County Police
William J. Heffron and staff, Fairfax County Police Department
Kenneth R. Kumm, Chesapeake Police Department
M. M. Kane, Chesapeake Police Department
Louis J. Tayon, Jr., Chesapeake Police Department
Catherine L. Nowery, Chesterfield County Police Department
John Schroeder, Hanover County Sheriff's Office
John J. Butch, Newport News Police Department

Several reviewers at the Department of Criminal Justice Services reviewed drafts and contributed comments. One member of staff deserves particular praise: Julia Stanton Gigante. Her meticulous and thoughtful editing transformed a rough compilation of directives into a coherent whole. If the directives convey a high standard of professional behavior, and if the sample directives provide clear and concise guidance to a high professional standard, then Ms. Gigante deserves the credit.
